What sits outside our scope

We are unable to offer legal or tax advice and recommend you consult your solicitor or accountant for advice of that type. We do not provide advice on products beyond those listed above.

How we work with you

We follow a structured advice process: we take time to understand your circumstances and goals, research suitable options across our provider range, and give advice designed to meet your needs. We will agree the scope of our work with you before advice is given, and we will tell you in writing about any commission or fee relating to a recommendation before you commit to it.

You may ask us to narrow or extend the scope of our advice at any time. If a need falls outside what we are able to advise on, we will tell you and, where appropriate, refer you to a suitable specialist.
